

The Courier

of Saint Stephen's Evangelical Lutheran Church — Wilmington, Delaware January 2009

From the Pastor..

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Happy (secular) New Year! I take some satisfaction that every year, though we hear people talk about how the Church is behind the times, we are the ones who are already celebrating the New Year. And as for the people who say the Church must get with the times or perish, the funny thing is, the Church is still here and they aren't. I do not say that as an example of snarkasm, but simply to point out the truth that the Church of Christ is always and everywhere only one generation away from failure. That is a thought that should give us pause in those moments of high glory, and give us strength in those times when things seem insurmountable.

Last month, I shared with you the news that we would be starting Bible Study and prayer really soon here at Saint Stephen's. The Congregation Council is committed to starting with the Book of Acts, and will do so beginning in February. And we now have three households to start with who are graciously volunteering time and space to be sites where we can have members of Saint Stephen's gather around God's Word and pray with and for one another. There will be one place in the Newark area, one out in Hockessin and one in Wilmington itself. More details will be forthcoming as to day date and time for each place, but we are on our way.

Why is this important? Because there are three types of members at Saint Stephen's: those who know the need to be together with fellow believers, in the Word and in prayer and are doing it; those who know the need to be together with fellow believers, in the Word and in prayer and are not yet doing it; and those who do not yet know the need. We are setting up our groups so that people in the latter two groups can find a place.

We have been moving towards this for a long time here at Saint Stephen's. And it seems to be part of God's plan. Saint Stephen's is not immune to the issues that are at work in our society, and the economic downturn has had a serious effect on how we look at ministry and mission.

The Advent season is very moving for me as I know it is for you.

The sacred music we hear during Advent, along with the beautiful decorations in the church as Christmas approaches, helps with the anticipation of the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ. It makes us want to give a present to God for all he has given us. That gift does not have to be money or material.

What we can do is to use our hands to do God's work. He is there to support our every moment and gives us the greatest present of all — Eternal Life. We have been saved by him with Grace alone. When we accept that grace, how can we not serve him?

The Christmas season is a good time to renew our faith and fill our hearts with the love which is given so freely to us. We can open our hearts

What better time in our life together to come together and do what it is that God has called us to do. Think of this as a New Year's resolution. Think of it as our New Year's resolution. Look for details, and if you have any questions, talk to me.

There are some other neat things happening as well in the Worship and Music ministries of the Congregation. After a long and excellent stewardship of the Worship and Music mission team, Julie Hazuda has stepped down (Thanks, Julie!) and Ann Wagner has taken over the helm. At our most recent meeting, we made plans for doing a more inclusive Liturgy. What does that mean? It means that we are living into the definition of liturgy being the work of the people. It began with Ian Campbell who will be coordinating ushers and then we found that we wanted not only ushers, but lectors, chalice bearers, acolytes, greeters and Dan was emphatic in insisting on tenors. So watch for the poster in the Gathering Area and realize that you are called to serve.

And mark your calendars for February — as of this writing, we are still waiting to hear back from Saint Francis Retreat Center for the exact date (I am letting others choose. Many of you know my luck with events in February weatherwise...) for A Day Away Together (aka a retreat): Creed or Chaos: Your Choice! It will be an event open to everyone at Saint Stephen's. Look for the publicity.

In Christ's Peace, Pastor Matt+

Emmanuel Dining Room Food Drive

Its time to start buying apple sauce and baked beans for Emmanuel Dining Room. We'll begin our food drive in February, but there's no need to miss the great January sales! Many hungry people thank you for your kind sharing with them.

and pray for a fulfilling and blessed year at St. Stephen's.

The new year is fast approaching and I know several of us make a New Year's Resolution and plan to keep it. My resolution will be to do the best job I can to serve on the council this year at St. Stephen's.

The new year brings us hope of many things: hope for a better world, hope for a blessed spiritual year and hope for health and love for all our brothers and sisters. I took the position of Council President knowing that all our brothers and sisters in St. Stephen's love the church as much as I do and therefore I am counting on all of you to help.

The Bible says: "He saved us and he called us to be his own people not because of what we have done, but because of his own purpose and grace." (Timothy 1:9)

Knowing and working for God gives our lives significance.

Sue Culley needs cards — birthday cards, anniversary cards, get-well cards, thinking-of-you cards, and blank cards for writing special messages. Please drop your contributions off at the church office. Thank you!

The 12 Days of Christmas — Origins & Religious Meaning

By Daniel Howe, Director of Music

My brother sent me an interesting email this morning which showed how much of the Western world celebrates Christmas with symbols and traditions. Of course, one of the most recognized icons of Christmas is the evergreen tree – and Lutherans have a legend about Martin Luther on that subject.

There's a song that probably most of you know and it's something that choirs and individuals sing – fun to sing and seemingly with so specific religious significance. However, there is a legend about this carol that may have interesting historical and religious meaning. Since the Courier will be going out and may arrive at your home sometime during the '12 Days' – I thought you might enjoy reading this possible interpretation of a well known and beloved song.

Catholics in England during the period 1558 to 1829 were prohibited by law to practice their faith either in public or private. It was illegal to be Catholic until Parliament finally emancipated Catholics in England in 1829.

“The Twelve Days of Christmas” was written in England as one of the “catechism songs” to help young Catholics learn the basics of their faith. In short, it was a coded message, a memory aid. Since the song sounded like rhyming nonsense, young Catholics could sing the song without fear of imprisonment. The authorities would not know that it was a religious song.

“The 12 Days of Christmas” is in a sense an allegory. Each of the items in the song represents something significant to the teachings of the Catholic faith. The hidden meaning of each gift was designed to help Catholic children learn their faith. The better acquainted one is with the Bible, the more these interpretations have significance.

The song begins, “On the first day of Christmas my true love gave to me...”

The “true love” mentioned in the song doesn't refer to an earthly suitor, but it refers to God Himself. The “me” who receives the presents refers to every baptized person. i.e. the Church.

1st Day: The partridge in a pear tree is Christ Jesus upon the Cross. In the song, Christ is symbolically presented as a mother partridge because she would feign injury to decoy a predator away from her nestlings. She was even willing to die for them. The tree is the symbol of the fall of the human race through the sin of Adam and

Eve. It is also the symbol of its redemption by Jesus Christ on the tree of the Cross.

2nd Day: The “two turtle doves” refers to the Old and New Testaments.

3rd Day: The “three French hens” stand for faith, hope and love — the three gifts of the Spirit that abide (1 Corinthians 13).

4th Day: The “four calling birds” refers to the four evangelists who wrote the Gospels — Matthew, Mark, Luke and John — who sing the song of salvation through Jesus Christ.

5th Day: The “five golden rings” represents the first five books of the Bible, also called the Jewish Torah: Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy.

6th Day: The “six geese a-laying” is the six days of creation.

7th Day: The “seven swans a-swimming” refers to the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear of the Lord.

8th Day: The “eight maids a milking” reminded children of the eight beatitudes listed in the Sermon on the Mount.

9th Day: The “nine ladies dancing” were the nine fruits of the Holy Spirit found in Galatians 5:22-23: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self control.

10th Day: The “ten lords a-leaping” represents the Ten Commandments.

11th Day: The “eleven pipers piping” refers to the eleven faithful apostles.

12th Day: The “twelve drummers drumming” were the twelve points of belief expressed in the Apostles' Creed: belief in God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, that Jesus Christ was born of the Virgin Mary, made man, crucified, died and arose on the third day, that he sits at the right hand of the father and will come again, the resurrection of the dead and life everlasting.

Caveat: Just to inform you, I've discovered that there is a controversy disputing the authenticity of this interpretation,

Operation Warm

LCS gave out 312 brand new coats for low income kids in our area through Operation Warm. Coats were given out at LCS Grocery Clubs and Produce Distributions at New Calvary Baptist, St. Philip's, St. Stephen's, St. Paul's and Tree of Life. Volunteer help made the program go smoothly, especially bilingual volunteers at St. Philip's and St. Stephen's where a large percentage of the clients are Latino/Hispanic. Operation Warm is a national organization, based in nearby Pennsylvania. Its mission is to provide low income kids with brand new coats to keep them warm and support their self-esteem.

Gifts Brighten Holidays

LCS gave out 25 free turkeys to low income families in the days leading up to Thanksgiving. Turkeys were acquired from Delmarva and from LCS volunteers who either had an extra turkey or went out and bought one as a gift because they know how important a festive dinner can be. LCS also received and distributed ten Christmas boxes from Westminster Presbyterian Church. Christmas boxes are a tradition at Westminster and they contained the makings for a holiday dinner plus one wrapped gift for each adult and two for each child. Speaking of gifts, LCS received a donation of over $1000 for its food programs from the offering collection at the Thanksgiving ecumenical service organized by Pastor Ruby Narucki of Hope Lutheran.

St. Stephen's Wish List

This a a new feature in the Courier, suggested by a congregational member upon whose management and executive insights we have come to rely.

With the economic situation having an effect everywhere, including Saint Stephen's, there are things we need, but may not be able to budget for. SO we are developing a wish list. There may be ways in which, because of circumstances in the home or office, you can help us out.

And to kick off the Wish List, Saint Stephen's is asking for:

A Desktop computer for the Church Office. We need a healthy sized HD. It would be useful to be in XP since none of the other machines are in Vista, or Mojave, or whatever else they are calling it. We need a new machine because the current one was old 5 years ago, and does not support USB ports.

We use MS Word, Publisher, Excel and should probably update to Powerpoint

We use Firefox and Thunderbird for internet and e-mail.

So if you wish to give a new machine, or have a gently used one that would be suitable, please contact Pastor Matt.

Wonder of the Windows Campaign

By Dave Warner

In early December our fund raising effort to stabilize and restore the exterior of our wonderful stained glass windows reached a significant milestone: We reached the halfway mark to our goal of $45,000. Four of the main sanctuary windows now have sponsors, and the window in the sacristy has also been sponsored.

But, there is still a significant amount of money to be raised, and there are several windows that await your loving donation. In the center spread of The Courier you will find more information, including a donation form. While we would prefer to have the donation submitted along with the form, realize money is tight, and you may not have the entire amount presently on hand. Pledges are accepted; the pledged amount should be submitted by mid-2009.

Please consider making this a Merry Christmas with many Happy, Restored New Year's for our windows by donating to the Wonder of the Windows campaign.
